Hospital Aid Wins Chevrolet Auto

DEVERE SCHMIDT WINNER OF 2ND PRIZE

Subscription Campaign Closed Saturday

Mercy Hospital Aid society was the winner of first prize and Devere Schmidt of second in the Avalanche's subscription campaign that closed last Saturday night. Laura Parker was third in the race and Reggie Sheehy not far behind. It was a close race and the result wasn't known until the last certificate for subscription was counted.

It would hardly seem complete if we didn't have something to say about the subscription campaign. It ran over a period of seven weeks, and was conducted by the "Liner Newspaper Campaign Service, Chicago, with Everett Smith in charge.

Primarily the campaign was conducted for the purpose of securing new subscriptions. During the time our subscription rates were dropped from $1.75 to $1.50 per year for local subscriptions and from $2.00 to $1.75 for out-of-county subscriptions. This gave the public an opportunity to save on the cost of their subscription. Prizes of a standard Chevrolet Coach for first and a Crosley Shelvador electric refrigerator for second were offered.

Several persons entered the campaign as contestants but only four remained to the end. The latter were Devere Schmidt, Laura Parker, Reggie Sheehy and Mrs. Stanley Flower, the latter representing the Hospital Aid society. The latter started about two weeks later in the campaign than the others, and while it looked as tho the field had been very well covered, Mrs. Flower managed to edge into first place by a very narrow margin. Mrs. Parker was third in the contest and Reggie, while he made a fine showing, was last.

During the final week of the campaign the subscription receipts were placed in a special fund chest at Grayling State Savings Bank in order to guard against any information relative to the standings of the contestants becoming known. Even the campaign manager had no knowledge as to how the campaign was progressing. At 9:00 o'clock Saturday night the contestants and judges representing them, the writer, campaign manager and a few interested friends gathered at the bank while the subscriptions were counted and votes tabulated. The judges were Holger Hanson, Wilfred Laurant, Mrs. B. A. Cooley, Frank Bennett and George Schroeder.

The judges found the accounts and records as filed by the contestants accurate. Each of the contestants made a good showing, after several weeks of strenuous effort. Hardly a family in Grayling was missed in the canvass by the campaigners and hardly a home in Grayling will be without the Avalanche for the next several years due to their efforts. And out in the county too there is a large increase in subscribers. And also there were many new and renewal subscriptions from out in the state and from other states.

In the final summary by the judges it was found that the Hospital Aid society had won the Standard Chevrolet Coach, purchased from Alfred Hanson, local Chevrolet dealer, and that Devere Schmidt had won the second prize—a Crosley Shelvador electric refrigerator, purchased from the Sorenson Furniture Store. The options to accept the sum of $490 in cash instead of the auto, and $90 in cash instead of the electric refrigerator were exercised on the part of both victorious contestants. The third and fourth contestants were awarded bonuses and commissions that amounted to quite snug sums. Thus everyone was satisfied and happy. Checks for the amounts due were presented promptly after the contest closed.

The Avalanche is indeed grateful to those who helped to make the campaign a success. Mr. Smith, in his management of the campaign, was assisted by his wife and each is deserving of the highest commendation for their efficiency, courtesy, and fairness in the way they handled the work. Each and every contestant was extended every courtesy and treated with the utmost fairness.

The judges Saturday night worked without compensation, the bank opened its doors after hours for our convenience, and George Schroeder, assistant cashier, remained until the final summary and financial deposits were completed. All have our sincere gratitude and thanks. We trust that our top-notch circulation is going to continue for many years to come, and that local merchants are going to be quick to take advantage of this fine coverage by using the Avalanche as the medium for their advertising.

The Annual School Meeting

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all who gave me their generous support in the campaign. Altho I did not win first, I feel as tho I had the co-operation of many friends.

I sincerely thank Mr. Schumann for the fine 2nd prize.

DEVERE SCHMIDT.

LAND OF THE LOYAL FREE

By Mrs. Dean in the New York Times

Land of might and mercy;
Homes of men born free;
Once again we pledge, now,
Loyalty to thee:
From thy vales and mountains,
From thy seas and plains,
Rally us to serve thee
When thy need ordains;
Land of might and mercy;
Homes of men born free;
We thy sons proclaim, now,
Loyalty to thee!

Land of holy memories,
Land of hallowed dreams,
Deathless every star that
From thy banner gleams
Endless be our homage
To the legions who Died, in youth and courage,
To make thy promise true:
Land of holy memories,
Land of hallowed dreams,
Deathless as a star, thy
Flag triumphant gleams!

Radiant land of Morning;
Land of destiny;
Evermore the home of
Loyal liberty;
Thou thy foes be mighty;
Be they far or near;
Where thy banner leads us,
There shall tyrants fear.
Radiant land of Morning;
Land of destiny;
Evermore the shrine of
Loyal liberty.

Legion Jottings

The Drum & Bugle Corps marched to the Park Thursday evening and returned playing all the way.

On Friday night the boys all got out with their hammers and saws and went to work on the big Bowery. This bowery is probably one of the biggest ever erected in northern Michigan. It is a 38 ft. by 78 ft. dance floor and in addition we have an orchestra pit at the side. When the hammers stopped the Corps was greeted by Mrs. Alfred Hanson and Mrs. Adolph Peterson who surprised the boys by making a spread of delicious sandwiches and lemonade, and say, did that go over good! We wish to thank the girls for this courtesy as it was nice of them to do this.

Sunday noon the boys took off for our neighboring city, Gaylord, for the Bass Festival parade. Arriving at Gaylord we decorated our truck for the day which was presented to us for the occasion by Mr. George Burke, for which we are very thankful. After arriving in Gaylord we were told that we were to lead the parade, which we did. Everyone along the line spoke well of our organization and we are glad our services are appreciated. The U. F. W. Girls Drum & Bugle Corps from Alpena were also in parade and after parade greeted the Grayling Drum & Bugle Corps. They were very good and looked nice with their uniforms. They were formed at the same time our Corps was and too much credit cannot be said of their fine Corps.

Monday night our Corps was asked to go to Roscommon where Comrade Jess Green opened up his new beer garden. We played several numbers for him and then went over to George Betway's Restaurant and gave him a few tunes.

Our Corps is going to go to Mancelona and Charlevoix to enter into their parades for all 4th of July celebrations. All members must be at Legion Hall

TOO BUSY TO TAKE VACATION

H. W. Wolff is pretty busy these days since the advent of the streamline trains that are being constructed by the American Car & Foundry Co., of which he is the executive vice president.

The two new trains that were recently delivered to the Gulf, Mobile & Northern, now operating from the Gulf of Mexico 500 miles north, to Jackson, Tenn., are the first of these trains to be designed and constructed thruout by the builder. They are the talk among railroad circles today and the Railway Age, founded in 1856 devoted almost its entire edition of June 15th to these trains. It seems, according to newspaper stories, that these trains are the embodiment of speed, safety and comfort, and they are beautiful to look at.

Contracts running into many millions are being received by Mr. Wolff's firm for their trains and he is so busy that he is missing much of his usual vacation at the family summer home on Lake Margrethe.

OPENING BEAUTY CULTURE SHOP

Harley Russell, having recently completed a course in cosmetology is opening a shop to be known as Tiny's Beauty Parlor on the second floor of the Grayling Hardware. He will be open for business next Monday, July 8th and invites you to call.

All branches of beauty culture including permanents, facials, waves, manicures, hair tinting, ready to leave at 8 a. m. prompt, as we have to be at Mancelona before 10 a. m. for that parade.

There will be a special meeting Friday evening at 8 p. m. of all American Legion members, and all Auxiliary members are requested to be present also. Business of importance to be taken up.

Comrade Clare Dean of Petoskey, an employee of the Department of Internal Revenue, visiting our Corps last Monday evening went with us to Roscommon. Returning he said our Drum & Bugle Corps was doing fine and gave us a fine talk along with some pointers on our drilling.

Homecoming Event Drawing Near

July is here and the big Homecoming that will be staged is approaching fast. This has been no little job, but everybody soon caught the spirit wholeheartedly so that nothing will be left undone to make the event one long to be talked of.

to keep the patrons interested every minute during the greater part of the evening.

The orchestra has arranged the program of dance music so that the entire program will be made up of dance hits from Musical Comedies of past and present numbers that everyone is familiar with, and also giving the public something new in the way of novelties and special arrangements on a great many of the most popular dance hits.

All week long Polle & Berger exposition and wild animal circus will be at the tourist park.

Polle & Berger Exposition and Wild Animal Circus

Amusement lovers have a great treat in store when the famous Polle & Berger Exposition and Wild Animal Circus will furnish all the entertainment features at the Homecoming.

Long known as an outstanding figure in the amusement world Henry J. Polle, in association with Louis Berger, has this year created a different kind of a show, combining the very best of the circus and carnival field.

In addition to the big circus, which seats several thousand people and provides a veritable Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey on a somewhat smaller scale, will be found innumerable side shows, all of an interesting, amusing and educational nature, as well as a dozen mammoth riding devices and several small ones arranged especially for the very small children.

Several shows that graced the midway at A Century of Progress are carried by Polle & Berger, and all exhibits have been planned and are conducted to please the women and children as well as the men. None of the old time objectionable features so long associated with carnivals are tolerated by the management.

One day will be set apart entirely for the youngsters and will be known as Children's Day, when they will be admitted to all shows and rides, as well as the big circus, at the reduced admission fee of five cents.

Homecoming Notes
All those having rooms that they will rent during the homecoming are asked to leave information with Mrs. Alfred Hanson, Phone No. 30-R.

You'll have the time of your life at the Legion bowery at Connine's park, floor 38x78 feet. A 6-piece band will furnish music. Dancing every night.

Beer will be on sale at the park by Grayling Post, and the price will be 15c per bottle. Lunches too.

All profits derived by the Legion is to be used to purchase uniforms for the drum and bugle corps.

Everything for use at the homecoming is here and ready for the opening day. Next week, street decorations will be put up and merchants will be getting their floats ready for the big parade.

On Saturday at the Veteran's day it is planned to have a number of Legion drum and bugle corps here and among them will be the Red Arrow outfit that visited Grayling last year during the reunion of that organization. We don't know whether we've missed telling you anything, but if so watch next week's issue of the Avalanche.

Visitors don't forget to register at the American Legion hall as on Wednesday night three prizes will be given away. One for the oldest homecoming coming back for the homecoming, one for the one traveling the longest distance to get here and one for the homecoming who has been away the longest and is coming.

And when in Grayling patronize the merchants who display the card "We have done our part."

DOING NICELY

In a country grown largely indifferent to a staggering federal public debt, it is reassuring to find a state whittling down its deficit and proceeding on a pay-as-you-go basis under a governor who to date has declared himself firmly opposed to spending in excess of revenues.

That state is Michigan. A year ago we had a deficit of $16,000,000. When the new fiscal year begins, July 1, we will be approximately $4,000,000 in the red. Under the announced policy of prorating appropriations according to revenue available, no more indebtedness should be contracted and the present deficiency will be lowered as fast as surplus funds accumulate. State receipts have a good chance to be greater than estimated as business picks up and welfare expenses diminish.

It appears that Michigan is going to continue leading the nation in recovery and reach the goal without having a burden of debt to be carried along for years.—Grand Rapids Press.

Co. Share McNitt Money $13,845.07

Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, announced today that the state highway department will release nearly $7,500,000 to the counties within the next three weeks.

The first release will be the state's final 1935 payment of $1,750,000 to the counties under the McNitt township road law. Vouchers for this payment were turned over to the auditor-general July 1.

Vouchers covering the second quarter payment on the weight tax estimated at $4,500,000 will be sent to the auditor-general about July 15, the commissioner announced. The third release to be made about the same time will be $1,225,000 as half the state's obligation to the counties from the gasoline tax. Under the 1933 law reducing the weight tax from 55 cents to 35 cents a hundred pounds the state is required to return $2,550,000 a year to the counties as partial compensation for the reduced revenue from that source.

Weight tax collections are nearly $2,000,000 above those at the same time last year. For the first five months of 1934 the collections amounted to $10,334,589 compared with $12,035,736 for the same period, this year. The state highway department's release on the first quarter payment was made April 9 and amounted to $8,557,303.

Gasoline tax collections have increased from $7,184,028 for the first five months of 1934 to $7,709,542 for the same period of this year.

All of the counties which have made their final gas and weight tax and township road reports to the state highway department and which have settled their obligations with the auditor-general's office, will be entitled to their payments shortly after July 1. A few of the counties have not submitted the reports and have not settled their obligations.

The McNitt money is returned to the counties under the 1931 law authorizing the counties to take over the maintenance of all township roads by 1936 at the rate of 20 per cent a year. The counties now have 80 per cent of the township roads. Allotments to each county are based upon the amount of township road mileage.

Crawford county's second half of the McNitt money for 1935 is $13,845.07.

BREEDS FOX AND "CAT" DOGS

John Stephan has gone to considerable trouble and expense to raise high-bred dogs for fox and "cat" hunting. Last winter he says he had quite a number interested in these animals and now has some for sale, but hunters must act promptly as he would like to dispose of them at once. John says, anyone buying one of his dogs may at any time up to Jan. 1st, 1936 return same and have purchase price returned if not satisfied.

Protect our game by hunting fox and "cats."

The Farewell Banquet

I believe everyone agrees that the farewell dinner in honor of Lieutenant Richard F. Cox was a huge success. The most elegant menu prepared and served by all the kitchen force was very pleasing to both the eye and the taste. The dinner was prepared by the following cooks: Nicodemus, Benjamin, Benson, Maxon, Balch, and Brigham, under the expert supervision of Mess Steward Don Wolfe. It was served in a very well-organized manner by the cooks and K.P.

Not only was the meal itself a success, but the speaking program afterwards was also enjoyed by the entire company. Senior Foreman George P. Daniels acted as master of ceremonies and called on various well-known figures to address the group. The speakers included Lieutenant Allen, Superintendent A. K. Braidwood, and Lieutenant Cox, the guest of honor.

After the speaking program Lieutenant Cox was presented with a saber which was a gift from the whole company.

Camp News

Camp Higgins

Lieut. Mark Shovar has been transferred from Camp Higgins Lake to the new veteran camp which is shortly to be established at Eldorado in the Huron National Forest, east of Roscommon. While with this organization he has been mess officer and post exchange officer, coming here late in January. Lieut. Wahlbom, with whom Lieut. Shovar was associated at Camp Hartwick Pines, is to be commanding officer at the new camp. These men are now at Johannesburg, which camp is to be split to form the basis for the Eldorado organization.

Prospects for a mess hall are much better recently, since materials for its construction began arriving last week. This structure burned to the ground May 25th.

It took 30 seconds for the company to turn out one night last week for a fire drill with every man at his proper place.

Wilber Claypoole, Kenneth Rowell, and George Way have been discharged for completion of 18 months with the CCC, the maximum term allowed for those not classified as key men.

Time was made up last week on work projects so that CCC men who went home for the 4th of July could have the remainder of the week end for a vacation. Most of the men in the company are expected to take advantage of the 4-day holiday period for out of town visits.

Forty-eight rookies arrived Saturday morning from Wexford county and have been placed on a two weeks work quarantine. The new men are quartered in barracks three and five.

Ernest Brabant and Paul DeLisle have been tentatively selected as representatives of Camp Higgins Lake at the Red Cross life saving school to be held July 22 to 27, both dates inclusive, at Fife Lake. Wherever it is possible, those attending will be trained so that upon returning to their respective camps they will train as life savers a number of their fellows, so that trained supervision can be perpetuated for a time in the camps.

E. A. Kayser is expected to be added to the supervisory staff of the MECW here starting July 8th with a rating of junior forester. He will be engaged in cultural projects. Mr. Kayser is from Ann Arbor.

A classroom 13 feet by 28 feet has been partitioned off in barracks three. This room will also house the camp's library, a new set of books having recently been received.

Andrew Heribaka succeeded Truman LaVack as senior foreman Monday, the latter returning to work projects as an assistant leader. Leo Marciniak replaces Heribaka as company clerk.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

TRENDS FAVORABLE IN STATE BANKING

Recent Figures Indicate Large Increases in Deposits and Invested Funds

Improvement in the condition of state banks in almost every respect during 1934 is shown by statistics recently assembled. Robert M. Hanes, President Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, points out in an article in "Banking" published by the American Bankers Association. The figures on which this statement is based were gathered by the Committee on State Bank Research of the association from reports furnished by state bank supervisors throughout the country.

"Ever since 1921 the number of state banks has been declining," Mr. Hanes says. "Between 1931 and 1934 the decline was rapid. Figures for December 31, 1934, showed that the downward trend has not yet ended, but the decline last year was the smallest in twelve years."

There are now, he says, about ten thousand state banks, which term includes all state chartered institutions with the exception of mutual savings banks. The article continues:

"Even more significant was the ending of the decline of deposits in state banks which had been going on since the collapse of the stock market boom in 1929. In recent years for which figures are available the drop has been particularly abrupt. Total deposits in state banks declined from $20,395,762,000 on December 31, 1931, to $15,424,823,000 on December 31, 1933. The record for 1934 shows a recovery to $17,508,766,000 at the year-end.

Significance of Increased Deposits

"It is particularly gratifying to note the expansion of deposits, since it was their decline which made necessary the liquidation of investments, the calling of loans, and all the other phenomena which go under the name of 'deflation' and have brought banks so much criticism in recent years. It is now plain that this was due to efforts of the banks to place themselves in the possession of enough liquid assets to meet the growing demands of depositors for the return of a part of the money which had been placed on deposit.

"That this is true is borne out by the movement of invested funds of state banks, which has paralleled that of deposits. These invested funds (loans and discounts plus investments) for state banks, dropped from $20,291,320,000 at the end of 1931, to $14,915,773,000 at the end of 1933. By December 31, 1934, however, they had recovered to $15,769,510,000. All of this gain is accounted for by the increase in investments during 1934, the expansion amounting to approximately $1,300,000,000.

"As for loans and discounts, they registered a slight drop again in 1934, but the rate of decline was much smaller than in previous years. Which in itself is progress. Whereas the drop in loans and discounts amounted to approximately $3,300,000,000 in 1932, and to approximately $1,300,000,000 in 1933, it was less than $500,000,000 in 1934.

"In another respect the balance sheet figures for December 31, 1934, were especially impressive. Bills payable and rediscounts of the state banks, which at the end of 1932 had reached a depression high of $669,709,000, had dropped by the close of last year to the low figure of $32,101,000. One must search the records as far back as 1917 to find bills payable and rediscounts of state banks at a lower figure. Moreover, it is reasonable to expect a further reduction of such borrowings during the current year."

TO FOIL BANK CROOKS

NEW YORK. — The American Bankers Association Protective Committee has developed a plan of bank inspection to bring out exposure hazards or weak spots in respect to attacks by criminals based on its long-established, nation-wide experience in investigating bank burglaries, holdups and sneak thefts.

The inspection covers eighty leading questions and seventeen recommendations which are instructive in the prevention of such crimes. These relate to such subjects as the use of alarms and other protective equipment, also the condition of windows, doors, skylights and other entrances which have facilitated the early morning entry of bandits who kidnap bank employees from their homes during the night, or break into the bank premises and blind and gag the employees until one comes along who is capable of opening the combination locks on vaults or safes.

FARM ACCOUNTING

One of the major agricultural activities of the Georgia Bankers Association is farm accounting. A Banker-Farmer Institute was held with a program built around this subject. The Bankers present pledged to interest five of their farmer customers in adopting standard farm accounting records. Forty farmers present signed up.

REMOVAL OF INSECT LARVAE ILLEGAL

Removal of insect and insect larvae from the trout streams of the state, except by fishermen for use in fishing the stream, has become illegal.

The Director of Conservation, however, is authorized to issue permits at a fee of $3 for removal of any insects and insect larvae under rules and regulations he may see fit to prescribe.

WHEN CHANGING TIRES IS EASY

Many a motorist would be thankful for a machine like this when a blow-out or puncture occurs out on the highway. This machine spins tires on wheels in about the time it takes you to count three. The scene is in the big Hudson Motor Car Company plant at Detroit, where activity is greater this year than in many years, due to increased demand for the new Hudsons and Terraplanes.

Olivet Man Proves Car's Reliability

While 1935 automobile models are undoubtedly the best that manufacturers in Michigan and other states have ever put on the market, no better example of the long life of the American automobile can be found than in the records of the Department of State, where it is commonplace to find cars 15 years old being re-licensed year after year. Original owners seldom keep them for any such periods though. A 1918 model touring car, however, has been registered continuously since that year in the name of Harry W. Sine, Route 1, Olivet. The title number is 229,663, and as titles have been numbered consecutively since the title law was enacted, this means that only about a quarter of a million automobiles had been registered in Michigan when the Olivet man bought his car.

BOYS PENALIZED FOR SHOOTING BIRDS

Two boys with rifles, a colony of night herons and the wisdom of a conservation officer are the elements that recently made up one of the most interesting enforcement cases to come to the attention of the Department of Conservation.

The boys are 12 and 14 years old and live near Bay City. In a spirit of adventure and without benefit of immediate parental control they visited a rookery of black-crowned night herons between Bay City and Saginaw, taking their guns along. Their marksmanship was good. The case had extenuating circumstances thought Russell J. Martin, regional conservation officer of Mt. Pleasant, and A. J. Neering, local officer. However, after conferring with Miss Carrie Gardner, juvenile officer of Bay County, they decided that the young men should receive "seven days" each.

The seven days is not a jail term, but a course in conservation. Each of the boys was ordered to spend seven days in the field with a conservation officer and learn all possible information

LOW RECORD IN FOREST FIRE LOSS

The "breaks" have been with Michigan's forest fire organization this year.

Due to frequent rains and other conditions unfavorable to fire, the loss from forest fire to and including the week ending June 22 was far below records of the previous three years for the same period of time.

The number of fires reported up to June 22 was 780 and the estimated acreage burned, 5,008. In previous years the losses have been several times that total for the same period of the fire season.

Figures of June 22 for the past fire hazard seasons follow.

Year	Fires	Acreage
1932	1166	21,000
1933	1094	19,280
1934	1193	15,834
1935	780	5,008

During the week ending June 15 there were no fires reported from any part in the upper peninsula, a rare occurrence during any fire season; few fires were reported from the fire zone of the lower peninsula.

If there is a continuance of the frequent rains which have characterized weather conditions this season, Michigan may have a new low record in forest fire loss, according to the Department of Conservation.

IT ISN'T HOME!

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THE ocean meets the sky and joins its blue. The waves are tipped with shredded silver foam. I gaze upon the sea and think of you. It may be beautiful, but it isn't home.

The splendid city flings its buildings high. The stars are all afloat in heaven's dome. The lighted windows and the starry sky. It's all so beautiful, but it isn't home!

Across the miles there is a patch of green. A little house upon familiar loam. A maple tree, a fence where roses lean. And that is beautiful, because it's home!

As an additional "penalty" the boys were instructed to read "Three Boys Go Camping," booklet distributed for school use and make a special study of the family of birds to which the herons they had shot belong. The sentences must be served before opening of school.

Extremely youthful in its simplicity of line and fabric, this sheer white cotton dress shows an interesting treatment of the violet dotted motif. The wide sash is a deeper tone of violet taffeta.

Question Box
By ED WYNN
The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have just taken a job as a waiter in a downtown restaurant. I don't get a big salary; so depend a lot on my tips. Today a man had his meal, and when I gave him his check he said he could not give me a tip, as he only had enough money to pay the check. I'll never make any money that way. What shall I do the next time a man says that to me? Yours truly,

I. SERVWELL.

Answer: The next time a man says he only has enough to pay for his check just take the check back and add it up again.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

For the past three weeks I have been touring through New England in an auto and I noticed nearly every farmer had a weather vane on the roof of his barn in the shape of a rooster. Can you tell me why they never have hens up there? Yours truly,

I. MUZZBEE DUMM.

Answer: It would be too hard to get the eggs.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have a girl friend who has a nasty habit of always saying nasty things about all the other girls. Everybody knows that about her, yet last night a boy friend who knows her said she was something to adore. What do you make out of that? Sincerely,

C. KILTS.

Answer: When he said she was something to adore he probably meant that she was a knocker.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I went to a school dance the other night and danced with the same girl twice. She let me take her home, and as I left her I told her I thought she was the sweetest girl in the whole world and now she won't go out with me any more. I wonder why?

Truly yours,

Answer: She doesn't want to disappoint you.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a girl seven years old. My teacher in Sunday school asked me how many commandments there are. I said, "Ten," then she said, "Suppose I broke one?" and I couldn't answer her. Now she says I can't come back to Sunday school until I bring her an answer. Can you help me? Truly yours,

MAY B. U. KNOE.

Answer: That's very simple, my child. If there are Ten Commandments and you broke one there would be nine left.

President Offers Higher Tax and Wealth Reduction Program—Social Security and Wagner-Connelly Labor Bills Passed.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

© Western Newspaper Union.

SPURRED on by the White House, after a hot debate, passed the Wagner-Connelly labor disputes bill by acclamation, and President William Green of the American Federation of Labor hailed it as a "magna charta of labor." As is well known, the federation is the chief beneficiary of the measure, and Green and other union labor leaders had worked unceasingly for its passage.

Opponents to this bill, including constitutional authorities in both parties, have asserted repeatedly that it is unconstitutional, and it is most probable that it will be carried to the Supreme court for an early test.

Every attempt to give the employer an even break with labor was voted down, but the house did accept an amendment making the new labor board an independent agency instead of a part of the Department of Labor as Secretary Perkins had demanded.

As passed by the house, the Wagner-Connelly bill provides: 1. For the setting up of a permanent labor relations board of three members, appointed by the President, as an independent agency. The board, or its agencies or agents, is authorized to supervise elections, conduct hearings, and issue cease and desist orders for "unfair labor practices," which are enforceable by the courts.

2. That representatives selected by a majority of a unit of employees for the purpose of collective bargaining shall have the exclusive right to negotiate with the employer. The board may determine the appropriate unit for collective bargaining, whether by plant or craft, etc.

3. That it is an unfair labor practice for employers to restrain, coerce, or interfere with employees in their organization for collective bargaining.

4. That it is an unfair labor practice for employers to "dominate" or contribute financially to any labor organization.

5. That it is an unfair labor practice to encourage or discourage membership in any labor organization for the purpose of making closed shop agreements.

6. A fine of $5,000 or a year in prison for anyone interfering with agents of the board, such as refusing to permit access to books and records.

EVEN Huey Long cheered when President Roosevelt's unexpected message on redistribution of wealth and increase of taxation for the rich was read to congress. The Chief Executive offered a program that he hopes will pay part of the vast expenses of the New Deal and at the same time break up some huge fortunes and check the growth of big corporations. He doesn't expect congress to do the entire job at this session, and the administration leaders at once set about stopping the radicals who wanted immediate enactment.

The President's taxation plan is frankly aimed against the wealthy, especially the men with million-dollar incomes. Of these there were 48 in 1933. In his message he said that existing tax policies have not prevented "unjust concentration of wealth and power," and added the warning: "Social unrest and a deepening sense of unfairness are dangers to our national life which we must minimize by rigorous methods."

The following legislation he recommended for enactment during the present session in order to obtain ample revenue without hampering enterprise and to distribute tax burdens equitably:

1. High inheritance and gift taxes on "all very large amounts received by any one legatee or beneficiary." Segregation of this revenue for reduction of the national debt.

2. Tax levies to restrict "very great individual net incomes."

3. Substitution of a graduated corporation tax ranging from 10% to 16% per cent for the existing 13% flat rate.

For consideration at the next session of congress the President proposed:

1. Elimination "of unnecessary holding companies in all lines of business," by discriminatory taxation.

2. Discouragement of "unwieldy and unnecessary corporate surpluses."

3. An amendment of the Constitution to abolish tax exempt securities by authorizing the federal government to tax subsequently issued state and local obligations and state and local governments to tax federal securities.

Treasury officials estimated that about one billion dollars could be expected ultimately from the tax plan submitted. Chairman Doughton of the house ways and means committee promptly called that body together to consider the proposals.

WITH only six senators voting in the negative, the senate passed the tremendously important social security bill that already had gone through the house. During the five days of debate a number of members, Democrats and Republicans alike, had argued earnestly that this measure never would stand up in the Supreme court, but when their names were called nearly every one of them voted for it. The only consistent ones were Moore of New Jersey, Democrat, and Hastings of Delaware, Hale of Maine, Metcalf of Rhode Island, Austin of Vermont and Townsend of Delaware, Republicans. This social security measure will affect about 30,000,000 beneficiaries in the immediate future and by 1939, it is estimated, will cost the federal government more than $3,000,000,000 a year. These are its main features:

1. An appropriation of $38,491,000 for the fiscal year 1936, including $49,750,000 for grants in aid to states for old age assistance. In addition there are authorized annual appropriations for the old age reserve fund, graduated from $255,000,000 in 1937 to $2,180,000,000 in 1980.

2. Income tax on employees and excise tax on employers, for old age benefits, beginning in each case at 1 per cent of the pay roll in 1937 and reaching the maximum of 3 per cent in 1949. In addition there is a pay roll tax on employers for unemployment insurance, beginning at 1 per cent in 1938, increasing to 2 per cent in 1939, and to 3 per cent, the maximum, in 1938.

3. Grants in aid to states on a matching basis for assistance to persons sixty-five or older, the government's contribution not to exceed $15 per month.

4. Old age benefits after January 1, 1942, ranging from $10 to $85 per month, depending upon the total amounts of wages earned after December 1, 1936, and before reaching sixty-five years of age.

5. A 90 per cent credit to employers for taxes paid into state unemployment insurance funds, the other 10 per cent to be apportioned among the states for administration of their unemployment insurance laws.

6. Grants in aid to states for aid to dependent children, the federal government putting up $1 to the state's $2. An appropriation of $24,750,000 is authorized for the fiscal year 1936.

7. Grants in aid to states on an equal matching basis for maternal and child health service. An annual appropriation of $3,600,000 is authorized.

8. Grants in aid to states on an equal matching basis for the care of crippled children. An annual appropriation of $2,500,000 is authorized.

9. An annual appropriation of $1,500,000 through the children's bureau for aiding state public welfare agencies in the care of homeless or neglected children.

10. An annual appropriation of $1,938,000 to be apportioned among the states for vocational rehabilitation.

11. An annual appropriation of $8,000,000 to be apportioned among the states for public health service.

12. Grants in aid to states on an equal matching basis for assistance to the blind. An annual appropriation of $3,000,000 is authorized.

13. A social security board of three members in the Department of Labor, to be appointed by the President, each member receiving $10,000 a year.

GREAT BRITAIN'S realistic government finds the best path toward general peace in Europe is conciliation of Germany, so it has yielded to Hitler's naval demands and concluded a bilateral pact with the reich, disregarding entirely the desires and fears of France. The agreement acknowledges Germany's right to build a fleet up to 35 per cent of the tonnage of the British empire, and what is more important, permits Germany 45 per cent, and in certain circumstances, parity with the empire in submarine tonnage. Submarines were forbidden to Germany by the treaty of Versailles.

France at once sent a stiff protest to London, and Capt. Anthony Eden was hurried over to Paris to try to calm down the French. It was asserted in Paris that a naval building race was sure to ensue, and the naval committee of the chamber of deputies began to discuss the enlargement of the fleet. The Washington treaty was considered by many to be dead.

SENATOR JAMES COUSINS of Michigan has given to the federal government $500,000 to finance a 1,000-acre residence colony for part time industrial workers in the Detroit area. A tract has been purchased nine miles south and west of Pontiac. The project will be controlled by a non-profit corporation and Senator Cousins will have nothing to do with its management.

FORTY prisoners in the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing staged a spectacular revolt against what they said was poor food, and refused to come out of the prison coal mine until their demands were granted. They built fires to keep the guards away from the shaft, but the smoke from these was turned backward and the mutineers tamely surrendered.

EWING Y. MITCHELL, whom President Roosevelt ousted from the position of assistant secretary of commerce because he could not work in harmony with Secretary Roper, retaliated with public charges that "special interests" dominate the Commerce department. He cited especially a government contract with the United States lines for the permanent laying up of the steamship Leviathan, asserting that it was against the public interest and that "those interested in the company, including P. A. S. Franklin, John M. Franklin, Vincent Astor and Kermit Roosevelt" stood to benefit by it. He also severely criticized the bureau of air commerce and the steamship inspection service.

No one in the administration seemed disturbed by Mr. Mitchell's outbreak, but the senate committee on commerce at once summoned him to explain and expand his charges. Mr. Mitchell turned out to be an excitable gentleman, prone to jump to conclusions and to voice his opinions rather than facts. He talked a lot about inefficiency, "sinks of corruption," "favoritism and graft" and such things, but he didn't tell the committee much that it didn't already know. He asserted the United States lines, a subsidiary of the International Mercantile marine, had received a "gift" of $1,721,000 through the retirement of the Leviathan. Controlling I. M. M., he said, was P. A. S. Franklin, Kermit Roosevelt and Vincent Astor.

At a press conference later he attributed the $1,721,000 gift to friendship between President Roosevelt and I. M. M. officials.

POOR old NRA, now just a thing of skin and bones, has a new set of managers. President Roosevelt issued an executive order extending the emaciated affair until April 1 next, in accordance with the resolution adopted by congress, and then announced that James L. O'Neill, vice president of the Guarantee Trust Co. of New York, would serve as administrator. Assisting the banker in the effort to persuade the public, business men and labor to abide voluntarily by the codes no longer enforceable, and in the assembling of statistics, are Leon C. Marshall, director of the division of review; Prentiss L. Cooney, director of the division of business co-operation, and George L. Berry, assistant to the administrator, representing labor. Mr. Berry, who has been serving as a code administrator, is president of the International Pressmen's union and was once a candidate for nomination for Vice President of the United States.

O'Neill, Marshall and Cooney were made directly responsible to the President. An advisory council of six members was named to help them. On this council are Charles Edison and Howell Cheney for industry; William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Philip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers, for labor, and Emily Newell Blair and Walton H. Hamilton, for consumers.

There are 5,400 employees of the NRA, 4,500 of them in Washington. Reduction of the personnel eventually to 1,500 is contemplated, but it is expected that most of the dismissed employees will be absorbed by other alphabetical agencies.

AFTER three bloody riots in Omaha's street car strike, in which one man was killed and nearly two hundred were injured, Gov. R. L. Cochran of Nebraska took charge of the situation. State troops were called out to preserve the public peace and the governor, meeting with representatives of the traction company, the central labor union and the strikers, ordered that the dispute be arbitrated immediately. He also ordered all guards employed by the company removed from the cars and decreed that all paid organizers cease their activities.

President Roosevelt succeeded in averting the threatened strike of bituminous coal miners. Both operators and the United Mine Workers agreed to a truce until June 30.

Tuesday night's catch rewarded him with a 20 1/2 inch and 19 inch brown trout and a 13 and 12 inch rainbows. He says he used one of his caddis flies and fished near the Wakeley bridge on the Au-Sable. He says these four trout gave him such a hard fight that he was tired out and had to quit. "Besides," he said, "four large trout are enough for anyone." Last Friday he guided for Mrs. Higbee, Detroit, well known golf champ and helped her land a 24 inch brown trout. Mrs. Higbee has a cottage on the Manistee.

Law F. Cuthen of the St. John News puts this one over: A traveling man for a Chicago paper house who makes St. John regularly told the news this story. He was in a smoking car on a train between Flint and Durand when a man rushed in from the car behind, evidently in great agitation and said: "Has anyone in this car any whiskey? A woman in the other car has fainted. Instantly a dozen flasks were produced and the man who asked for it picked out the largest one, drew the cork and put the bottle to his lips. With a long satisfied sigh he handed the flask back and remarked: "That did me lots of good. I need it. It always makes me sick to see a woman faint away."

Rattles Do Not Tell Age
A popular belief is that the number of rattles indicate the age of the individual snake, one rattle being added each year. The fallacy persists in spite of the fact that research has shown the rattles or rings to be due to the epidermis shed from the enlarged portion of the tail. Each time the skin is shed—and this occurs at intervals of two to five months—a new ring is added at the base, thus pushing the string forward, asserts a writer in the Detroit News. The terminal rattles are frequently broken off and lost. Thus the number of rattles present at any time offers no indication of age whatever.

Announcing New Electric Rates

in compliance with Order No. D-2927 of the Michigan Public Utilities Commission.

Effective on all bills rendered on and after July 1st, 1935.

The New, Lower, Simplified Rates

For all communities having from 100 to 499, inclusive, Electric Meters, except resort and seasonal service.

For Domestic Service

9 CENTS each for the first 30 Kilowatt-hours used per month.

5 CENTS each for the next 30 Kilowatt-hours used per month.

2 1/2 CENTS each for all over 60 Kilowatt-hours used per month.

MINIMUM MONTHLY BILL $1.00

For Commercial Service

9 CENTS each for the first 60 Kilowatt-hours used per month.

5 CENTS each for the next 120 Kilowatt-hours used per month.

MINIMUM MONTHLY BILL $1.00

The above rates are net. One cent per Kwh will be added to Domestic Bills and 1/2 cent per Kwh to Commercial Bills, for failure of prompt payment.

The above new rates do away with a number of former rates including the so-called "Room Rate" for residential service, and the "Hours Use of Demand" commercial rate, both of which, it appears, were generally disliked by our customers. The new rates are both lower and much simpler and will find favor with both residential and commercial customers.

Also the new Full Residential Rate [FRS] Optional

For All Territory, Except Resort or Seasonal Service

Available to any residential customer who uses our electric service for lighting and ordinary household appliances, TOGETHER WITH AN ELECTRIC RANGE OF NOT LESS THAN 5000 WATTS CONNECTED CAPACITY FOR REGULAR COOKING PURPOSES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

Uncontrolled Service - Class I

(No restrictions as to hours of use)

The First 35 Kw-Hrs. (or less) per month $2.50.

4 CENTS each for the next 65 Kw-Hrs. per month.

2 CENTS each for all over 100 Kw-Hrs. per month.

MINIMUM MONTHLY BILL $2.50

Controlled Service - Class II

(For water heating only during restricted "off-peak" hours as follows:—10:30 P.M. to 8:30 A.M. and from Noon to 5:00 P.M. Daily.—Subject to Change.)

1 CENT per Kw-Hr. for all current used (Measured through separate meter controlled by Company owned time switch.)

MINIMUM MONTHLY BILL (INCLUDING CLASS I) $3.00

The above rates are net and an additional sum equal to 5% of the total net bill, will be collected only from those who fail to pay bill promptly within 10 days. Apply to the Company for full regulations concerning this rate and the installation and use of automatic storage water heaters.
